The mobile office for professional operations!

The DataCourier from DICOTA unites all the demands on a mobile office in a single Notebook case: Very light net weight, durable exterior material as well as lots of storage room. The only surface space you need on the table is for the Notebook. Printer data is transmitted either conventionally via the printer cable or through the air via "Bluetooth". Additionally, DataCourier features a combination lock

The DataCourier accommodates all popular Notebooks up to 15" display size and is suitable for the following mobile printers: HP DJ 450, HP DJ 460, HP Officejet H470, Canon series i80/iP90 and iP100 with or without support of the Canon Portable Kit. Other printers upon request. The mobile printer is securely fastened with 3M Velcro pads. The DataCourier includes a removable exterior bag (Polyester) designed for documents. A removable Notebook bag is optionally available which allows you to carry your Notebook without the case. The Notebook bag is made of light-weight material (Nylon) and offers Notebook protection from all sides. The power socket built into the exterior hull of the case allows you to power your printer or recharge your batteries.

Internal cabling, power socket in the exterior hull, data transfer via cable or via „Bluetooth“, combination lock, shoulder strap, includes removable exterior bag, printer mount „3M Velcro pads“

Optional accessories (not included in the scope of supply)

A removable interior bag.
